

TITLE 4: ECONOMIC RESOURCES
DIVISION 3: BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS

§ 3424. Reinstatement.

(a) In any case where the Board has suspended or revoked a certificate or a permit or registration or refused to renew a certificate, permit, or registration, the Board may, upon application in writing by the person or firm affected and for good cause shown, modify the suspension, or reissue the certificate, permit, or registration.

(b) The Board shall by rule specify the manner in which such applications shall be made, the times within they shall be made, and the circumstances in which hearings will be held thereon.

(c) Before reissuing, or terminating the suspension of, a certificate, permit or registration under this section, and as a condition thereto, the Board may require the applicant therefore to show successful completion of specified continuing professional education; and the Board may make the reinstatement of a certificate, permit or registration conditional and subject to satisfactory completion of a quality review conducted in such fashion as the Board may specify.
