

§ 2115. Transporter's Liability.

Any shipping or transporting company that transports motor vehicles in violation of this Chapter (Title 9, Division 2, Chapter 1) or Title 6, Division 2, Chapter 3, to the Commonwealth shall be strictly liable for immediate return shipment of such motor vehicles to the point of embarkation. Any shipping or transporting company failing to immediately remove such motor vehicles from the Commonwealth shall be fined $500 per car per day until departure from the Commonwealth.

Source: PL 11-54, § 3, modified; amended by PL 22-26, § 6 (Jan. 6, 2023).

Commission Comment: [Historical comments omitted. For a copy of said comments, please contact the Commission.]

Legislative Findings of 2023 Amendment.— For Findings and Purpose of PL 22-26, see Commission comment to 9 CMC § 2101.